FRIDAY

Video 1 –
Welcome to galactic heist –
You are recruited here to join resistance and fight the empire
You are here because you're part of the resistance
we have reached out across the galaxy for the best of the best of known resistance – so that we unit to fight the empire we need team work
we need coordinated strikes to steal necessary components to ramp up the resistance.
(trading post)

Dining room
Welcome to PRISON, you are all now prisoners -your petty plot of the 'best of the best' resistance is over; you lost, we trapped you and will serve a major blow to the resistance

Saturday lunch

Orientation video to prisoners
There are older prisoners that will supervise new prisoners (scouts)
You will now work for the empire
1. Testing / verifying integrity of prison
2. Producing things/work for EMPIRE

Prison is secure
You will wear orange uniform at all time

Those are the most important

Saturday
Lunch time
A variation of 'you are prisoners'
Theme of
Every. Day. You will do the same work stations
You will be used as Guiney pigs to test security within the prison
You will produce important supplies to fight the resistance
The cell block with the lowest performance score will be punished
We will show you score throughout your work stations –remember to work harder than your fellow prisoners to avoid punishment.
You will not escape. Remember to always have your orange prison uniform. Remember to take the advice of your more senior prisoners who will train you - all so that we can defeat your 'resistance'

Friday

18:00-22:00 Road side check in REGISTRATION (ARRIVE IN CLASS A)

Prior to scouts arriving they will be told they have been chosen, to train on this planet be involved in secret imperial heist to retrieve some key communication device from the empire that the rebellion needs and they should prepare covert operation Friday night. Scouts/troops should be asked to arrive with one of the following (for trading) one of three (to be) specified items that are contraband, but valuable.
Storm troopers are roaming arounds the grounds.

They will arrive and check in and get told about the need for secrecy etc and to minimize noise/communication and report to trading post to trade their can of SpaghettiOs

Instructed to go to trading post for updated instructions about rebellion.
They will not yet go to campsite. Storm Troopers around.

18:00-22:00		STAFF

19:00-22:00 (trading post) | PLOT TWIST | Video talking about contraband

VIDEO #1 at TRADING POST

At the trading post, they will see video (welcoming scouts to planet and warning them about contraband etc)
Inspirational message for RESISTANCE leader about the HEIST they are planning

		STAFF		Video Loop – NO VISITORS CAN HAVE CONTRABND

At some point the SPL will be stopped/interrogated by STORM TROOPER, asked if they're carrying any contraband (item we asked them to bring) – and placed under arrest – the entire troop will be arrested and escorted to Eagle Room

21:00 Briefing in Dining Room – YOU ARE PRISONERS, prison Warden [name]

WARDEN: You have been brought here to this island, a place where the Empire's will is absolute, and your compliance is non-negotiable. This is not a place for the weak or the rebellious. You are now prisoners under the watchful eyes of the Imperial Guards, and you will follow their orders without question.

Understand this: you are here because you have been deemed a threat to the Empire. Your actions have led you to this point, and now you must face the consequences. This island is your new home, and you will learn to survive within its confines.

Temptations will arise. You may be tempted to barter or trade for information or favors. Resist these urges. Such actions will only lead to further punishment and extend your stay here. The Empire does not tolerate insubordination or deceit.

Your orange prison t-shirt uniform is your identity now. You must wear it at all times. It signifies your status as a prisoner and serves as a constant reminder of your place here. Failure to wear your uniform will result in severe consequences.

Senior prisoners will guide you. On Saturday, the more senior prisoners will provide you with a detailed orientation. They have been here longer and understand the rules and expectations. Listen to them, learn from them, and follow their guidance.

Tonight, you will remain in the prison yard. For the remainder of the night, you will stay here before returning to your assigned cell block. This is your time to acclimate to your new environment and understand the gravity of your situation.

Lights out at 23:55. You must be in your cell with lights off by 23:55. Any deviation from this rule will be met with strict punishment. The Empire demands order and discipline.

Tomorrow's schedule is strict. You will eat in your own prison cell block and then arrive for worker orientation at the flagpole prior to 07:55 AM with a bottle of water in hand. Punctuality is crucial. Any tardiness will not be tolerated.

Work for the Empire. Starting tomorrow, and every day thereafter, you will work for the Empire for eight hours. A small food break may be provided in the middle of the day, but only if there are no unforeseen incidents. Your labor is your duty to the Empire.

Performance will be judged. The Imperial Guards will be judging and scoring your performance as a cell block. The scoring ranking will be provided, and the lowest-scoring cell block will be punished. Strive to perform well and avoid the consequences of failure.

Orientation and food. For the next 60 minutes, there will be a brief prisoner-to-prisoner orientation and prison debris food. Use this time wisely to understand your fellow prisoners and the rules you must follow.

Be vigilant. Always be on the watch for traitors and imposters. Trading is prohibited, and any attempts to do so will be met with severe punishment. Trust no one but the Imperial Guards and follow their orders without question.

This is your new life. Accept it, adapt to it, and survive. The Empire's will is absolute, and your compliance is mandatory. Welcome to your new reality.

MINIIMAL INFORMATION -- THEY ARE PRISONERS

THERE WILL BE 'PRISON YARD -TIME' BEFORE CURFEW DURING WHICH GAMES MAY OCCUR

21:00-23:00 Dining Room and Activities

Speech by imperial guard:

21:00-21:10

WARDEN: Additional Instructions for Tonight:

- Between 21:30 and 23:00, the prison yard will be open. During this time, senior prisoners will be helping to orient you new recruits. Food is rarely provided by the Empire, but there are some scraps available tonight. Take advantage of this opportunity to eat, as it may not come often.
- The senior prisoners will teach you how to pass the time and other 'inner workings' of the prison system. Pay close attention to their guidance. They have earned their place and have valuable knowledge to share.
- There will be four stations set up in the yard, with a rotation every 15 minutes or so. This will allow you to learn different aspects of prison life from various senior prisoners. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to see the Ewok Bridge, a notable feature of the prison yard.
- Remember, the prisoners who are 'showing you the ropes' are more senior and have earned their place. Respect them and learn from them.
- Be cautious. There may be ambiguities in what you hear tonight. You won't always know if the Imperial Guard speaking to you is a traitor working with the Rebellion. Stay alert and trust no one but the Imperial Guards.

This is your chance to understand the dynamics of your new environment. Use it wisely.

Round robin of Prison stations. A buzzer will go off every 10-15 minutes

Saturday

06:00 – Scouts eat breakfast at campsite
08:00 – Flag ceremony & Saturday Camp Director Announcement, CLASS B ORANGE SHIRT ALL WEEKEND UNTIL DEPARTURE

EWOK BRIDGE FLAG CEREMONY

Warden: Good morning, Scouts!

Welcome to another day in service to the Empire. We begin our day with a traditional Boy Scout flag ceremony. Please stand at attention as we raise the flag of the Empire. Salute and pledge your allegiance to the strength and unity of our great cause.

Today, you will be working on the production of materials and gaining experience necessary for the Empire. Your productivity will be closely monitored and graded. The more you produce, the better your standing will be. Remember, your efforts contribute to the might of the Empire and our mission to defeat the Rebellion.

Throughout the day, you will rotate through different workstations. Some of you will be test subjects for the Empire's experiments, while others will be producing vital materials. Each station has its own set of tasks and expectations. Follow the instructions given at each station carefully.

You are due at your first activity before the clock-in time of 08:30. This means you need to hustle and get to your assigned station promptly. Do not return to your cell block. Move directly to your workstation and be ready to begin.

Real-time productivity assessments will be conducted. Because of this, you should not try to communicate with prisoners from other cell blocks. Focus on your tasks and maintain the highest level of productivity.

Lunch will be provided to all prisoners and guards. Make sure you have your water bottle, prison map, and always wear your orange prisoner shirt. Failure to do so will result in punishment.

Remember, your compliance and hard work are crucial. The Empire relies on your dedication and discipline. Let's make today productive and show our unwavering support for the Empire.

Dismissed.

12:30 Lunch – prisoners meet in dining room

12:30 Saturday Lunch break for lunch in dining hall. NO time to waste going to camp site.
Call it a working/learning lunch. UPDATES from camp PRISON WARDEN , X and with video info.

AS LUNCH STARTS

WARDEN: Attention, prisoners!

I hope you are all hard at work, contributing to the glory of the Empire. This is your mid-day update, a reminder of the reality you face and the expectations we have for you.

You will be here for a long time. Do not entertain any thoughts of escape. The island is heavily guarded, and any attempt to flee will be met with severe consequences. Your best chance of survival is to comply and perform your duties diligently.

Remember, your productivity is being monitored. The lowest-scoring cell block team will be punished. This is not a threat; it is a promise. Your performance today will determine your standing and the privileges or punishments you receive.

Here are the current standings:

- Cell Block A:
- Cell Block B:
- Cell Block C:
- Cell Block D:
- etc

As you can see, Cell Block XXX is leading with the highest productivity, while Cell Block XXX is currently at the bottom. If you are in Cell Block D, you need to step up your game. The Empire does not tolerate slackers.

Stay focused and keep working. You are here to serve the Empire, and your efforts are crucial to our success. Do not let your cell block down. Remember, your actions have consequences.

EAT YOUR LUNCH!.

After LUNCH

WARDEN: Attention, prisoners!

VIDEO # 3

Lunch is now over. I hope you have taken this brief respite to regain your strength, because the Empire demands your utmost effort and dedication for the remainder of the day.

You are expected to be at your assigned work post by 1:55 PM sharp. There will be no excuses for tardiness. The Imperial Guards will be watching, and any delay will be met with immediate punishment. You must hustle and ensure you are in place, ready to work.

This afternoon, you will rotate through four training workstations. Each station is designed to test your skills and productivity. You will be producing materials vital to the Empire's efforts against the Rebellion. Your performance at each station will be closely monitored and graded. Failure to meet the standards will have severe consequences.

Remember, the lowest-scoring cell block team will be punished. Do not let your cell block down. The Empire does not tolerate failure or laziness. You are here to serve, and you will do so with every ounce of your strength.

Dinner will be served in your cell block from 17:15 until 19:00. This is your only chance to eat before the end of the day. Make sure you are back in your cell block on time, or you will miss your meal. The Empire does not provide second chances.

Understand this: you are here because you have been deemed a threat to the Empire. Your only path to redemption is through hard work and obedience. Do not think about escaping or rebelling. The consequences will be dire.

Get back to work and prove your worth to the Empire. Your future depends on it.

Dismissed.

- During Laser AM and PM - COOKING

- Blue noodle challenge: Based on the scene from Andor episode 21, the teams have to cook and eat a bowl of blue noodles using only the ingredients and utensils provided by the game master. The teams have to use their creativity, culinary skills, and appetite to make the most delicious and authentic blue noodles. The scoring is based on the taste, presentation, and quantity of the noodles consumed by the teams.
- Banquet sabotage: Based on the scene from Andor episode 42, the teams have to infiltrate an Imperial banquet and sabotage the food without being detected. The teams have to use their stealth, strategy, and sabotage skills to access the kitchen, tamper with the food, and escape. The scoring is based on the amount of damage, chaos, and distraction caused by the teams.
- Food sculpture: Based on the show Foodtastic3, the teams have to create sculptures and scenes entirely out of food inspired by Star Wars ANDOR. The teams have to use their artistic, engineering, and food-art skills to design, build, and decorate their food sculptures. The scoring is based on the creativity, originality, and quality of the food sculptures.

I hope these ideas are helpful for your game. Have fun! 😊

GAME – PRISON BREAK (Saturday Night)

Synopsis

- Scouts will have to break out prison, using skills (and items) from day, visit 5 stations/stops to all required equipment to unlock ship/door etc to be free and escape prison arriving in the arena
- Radio transmission
- Welding component?

Scouts are prisoners are currently imprisoned in their cell block (aka campsite).

Prisoners will have in their possession.

Prisoner will

- receive map of prison, but with some pieces missing, or unreadable that will necessary to escape
- and a compass and scoutbook

Throughout Saturday, there will be increasing rumor of a coordinated prison break

During dinner, a senior prisoner will arrive at the campsites to tell the SPL that at 8:00, the prison block monitoring system will be undergoing upgrade and that they have 15 minutes to get out the prison block so they can move about.

They will be provided different missing pieces/components of the map

They will need to collect 5 items in order to get out of prison – and, when combined, they will unlock the passage way out of prison, including fuel rods (liquid glow stick), something that was made during welding. Without these 5 items, they will be unable to board the spaceship to escape prison. They will need to shimmy through large culvert at one some point
